New Issuance Recap:

As winter sports enthusiasts the world over trained their eyes on Sochi, investors looked to the new issuance market's 23 deals last week in hopes of earning their own spot on the podium. 10 IPOs, 9 follow-ons, and 4 convertible offerings took home $4.8B as new issuance hit the ground running to start February. By comparison, the same period last year saw 19 deals rake in $3.7B in proceeds. Follow-ons contributed to the bulk of last week's combined proceeds, earning a collective $1.9B. Notably, the prior week's 4 convertible offerings brought in a combined $1.86B in total proceeds, led by a $1.0B issue from Herbalife. Offerings from Healthcare issuers continue to drive new issuance activity, as last week saw 15 offerings from the sector raised an aggregated $2.36B, with Envision Healthcare's $964.6M follow-on leading the space. Furthermore, Healthcare accounted for 6 of the 9 IPOs to price this week. These debuts, however, trended on the smaller side, raising an average of just $70.1M. In addition, of the 109 deals to price thus far this year, 42 have come from Healthcare issuers, by far the most of any sector. So far, this week looks to be comparatively quiet, with only 10 deals currently expected. Once again, Healthcare looks to be dominant, with 6 issuers from the sector looking to make their market debut. While it remains to be seen who will earn the most medals at Sochi, Healthcare has already emerged as an uncontested winner in the new issuance market.

- 23 U.S. deals priced last week with total proceeds of $4,759.0 M. There were 10 IPOs ($980.7 M), 9 Follow-Ons ($1,917.5 M), 0 block trades ($0.0 M), and 4 convertible deals ($1,860.9 M).
- 7 mandated deals filed last week for a total of $2,091.8 M.
- 11 shelf registrations filed last week for a total of $3,521.8 M.
- 2 deals were withdrawn or postponed last week for $307.3 M.
- 10 deals are expected to price this week ($845.3 M).
