New Issuance Recap:

New issuance markets remained relatively subdued for a third consecutive week last week as strong equity index performance was offset by an anemic Q1 U.S. GDP report and ongoing geopolitical tension in Ukraine. Total deal count dipped by one from a week earlier, to 16, though proceeds rose to $5.3B from $3.4B a week earlier. The bump in proceeds was largely attributable to a $2.1B follow-on from LatAm telecom provider Oi S.A., the largest so far this year. On the IPO front, activity remained especially muted, with just 3 debuts following the prior week's sole entrant. The past two weeks have marked a major break from the preceding five-week stretch, which witnessed a total of 47 IPOs and accounts for nearly half of the year's total of 98. Despite the earlier strength in deal volumes, IPO price performance has been trending downwards for the past two months or so, with the average first day pop sliding steadily from 47.7% for the week ended March 14th all the way to -4.3% last week. The weak performance appeared to be due more to tepid investor interest than aggressive pricing, as all three of last week's debuts priced at or below the bottom of their initial filed pricing ranges. The week's largest IPO, private equity firm Ares Management, priced below its filed range and cut its share count as existing shareholders chose not to sell in the offering, which was downsized to $215.9M from $400.3M expected at last filing. Despite the conservative offering, shares still ticked down 2.2% on day one. With 8 IPOs already on the calendar for this week seeking a combined $1.1B in proceeds, issuers will hope that last week's strong broader market performance and an impressive jobs report on Friday translate into renewed investor appetite for new shares.

- 16 U.S. deals priced last week with total proceeds of $5,321.2 M. There were 3 IPOs ($342.1 M), 10 Follow-Ons ($4,585.4 M), 3 block trades ($393.7 M), and 0 convertible deals ($0.0 M).
- 5 mandated deals filed last week for a total of $830.4 M.
- 15 shelf registrations filed last week for a total of $2,735.1 M.
- 1 deal was withdrawn or postponed last week for $100.0 M.
- 9 deals are expected to price this week ($1,245.1 M).
